Supreme Court Decides the Anamalia Maunakea Case.

The Supreme Court yesterday decided the celebrated Anamalia Maunakea habeas corpus case. In this case Anamalia was brought to Honolulu for examination as to whether or not she was a leper. She selected Dr. Atcherley, and the Board of Health selected Dr. McDonald. McDonald found she was a leper. Dr. Atcherley refused to sign the finding, but stated orally that the patient had leprosy but that he would not say she was capable of spreading the disease. Three months afterwards the woman was asked to select another doctor, being told by the keeper at the Kalihi Receiving Station that Dr. Atcherley was not allowed to come there. After some demur she selected Dr. Mc-Lennan. The latter reported that he was unable to say whether the pa-Seattle-Sailed, Oct. 17, S. S. Mexitient had or had not leprosy, and thereupon he and Dr. McDonald selected Dr. Sinclair as the third physician, who, with Dr. McDonald, certified that the woman was a leper, and upon that finding the board undertook to send her to Molokai, when the habeas corpus proceedings were brought to prevent it. The Board of Health contended before the Supreme Court that the question of whether she had or had not leprosy was the one that should determine whether or not she should be sent to the Settlement. The Supreme Court held, however, that the only question before them was whether the proceedings prescribed by the law had been followed or not. It decided that they had not; that she had not waived any rights by choosing a second physician, under the circumstances, and that she was entitled to be discharged. The court said it was not called on to say at this time what course should be followed if the physician chosen by the suspect unreasonably refused to join in the selection of a third physician.

The woman was released from the Kalihi station yesterday. She will shortly be served with a penal summons citing her before a magistrate to determine whether or not she is a leper, of which, however, it is said there is no doubt. A board of physicians will be chosen to examine her. Per str. Mauna Kea, from Hilo and She will have the right to choose one All that the Supreme Court decide must be complied with.

The situation is one that in th opinion of the officials requires som amendment of the law to provide more specific method of securing th chosen can not agree. Divorce Granted.

Judge Lindsay yesterday granted divorce to Zilla Brown from William Brown on the ground of non-support. Pineapple Tax Cases.

Argument on the motion of the At torney General for the entry of judgment in the pineapple tax cases was heard by the Supreme Court yesterday morning. The matter was taken under advisement.

Divorce Refused.

When Judge Lindsay learned, during the hearing of the case, that Carmela Ah Lee and Ah Lee were married to escape prosecution under the Edmunds Act, he refused to grant a divorce.
